

Make a Simple Family Boo Basket with a Coloring Page

Gather the supplies

- [ ] One printed ghost coloring page
- [ ] A small basket, box or sturdy paper bag
- [ ] Optional: a separate note for the recipient
- [ ] Crayons or colored pencils
- [ ] A paper band or a little tissue paper

> The page and colors are enough on their own. Any extra should suit the recipient; a basket does not need filling.

Follow the steps

1 Print the activity before you pack it

Print one copy, single-sided, on US Letter or fit to page for A4. If an edge is missing, check paper size and scale in the printing guide.

- For a different character, use the free Smiling Jack-o-Lantern page.

2 Choose a flat or rolled presentation

Keep the page protected and the colors easy to see. Put crayons beside a flat sheet, not across the drawing.

- For a roll, face the artwork outward and keep the paper band loose enough to flatten again.
- Without a basket, use a sturdy paper bag and an optional handwritten note.

3 Make the coloring page the main gift

Write the recipient name on a separate band or note, leaving the drawing blank. If markers are included, put scrap paper underneath.

- For a classroom version, follow class rules for supplies and extras.
