1 The round body

Draw a large, rounded body. Leave a small gap at the top for the cap; do not draw a line across that gap.

2 The cap

Join the two top ends with a small cap. Round its top corners and curve its bottom edge gently.

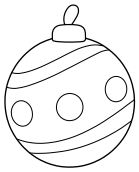

3 The tilted loop

From the top of the cap, draw a tall, narrow loop leaning to the right. Curve over its rounded top and back down to the cap.

4 Start the first band

Start on the upper-left edge of the body. Sweep a long curve across and up to meet the upper-right edge. Stop at the outline.

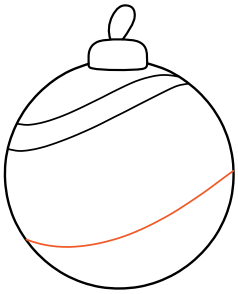

5 Complete the first band

Start lower on the left edge and draw a following curve beneath the first. End lower on the right edge. Both curves stop at the outline; do not draw beyond it.

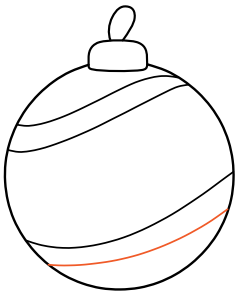

Enlarged detail; use the full picture for placement.

6 Start the second band

Across the lower half, draw another long curve from the left edge, sweeping right and upward to meet the right edge.

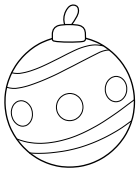

7 Complete the second band

Draw a following curve below it, from the lower-left edge to the lower-right edge. Stop both ends at the outline. You now have two bands made from four curves.

8 The first outlined dot

In the open space above the lower band, draw a tall oval on the left. Join back to where you started and leave its middle white.

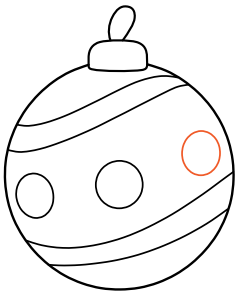

Enlarged detail; use the full picture for placement.

9 The middle dot

Draw a larger, rounder dot near the middle, a little higher than the first. Close its outline and leave the middle white.

10 The right dot

Draw an upright oval near the upper right, between the bands. Close its outline and leave the middle white.

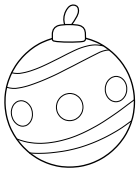

Your Christmas ornament is ready.

Choose a color for each band and dot. Leave some spaces white if you like, or draw the ornament again with your own color choices. Try your drawing on the next page.
